

Fine ladies and gentlemen of Steampunk! 🌀

The boilers are firing up and the great wheels are turning!

Combe Mill in Oxfordshire invites you to its first convivial,

a wonderful steampunk-friendly day on Sunday 20th September 2026.

Come and enjoy the historic mill in full steam — running all day with its impressive working machinery on display. Wander the site, soak up the atmosphere of brass, gears and living industrial heritage, and enjoy a relaxed day among fellow enthusiasts.

This will be a small, friendly, and intimate affair, just perfect for a leisurely Sunday out in your steampunk finery (or just as you are!).

What's on:

- The steam mill working throughout the day
- Demonstrations of traditional crafts and skills
 - Morris dancers performing
- A stall from our friends Claire & Sally of The Old Souls' Parlour (Woodstock)
- On-site Tea Room for refreshments

📌 For ticket prices and further information on Combe Mill, please click here:

www.combemill.org

💖 Drop in the comments if you're interested so we can gauge numbers, thank you.

Victorian ghosts at Combe Mill?

.Why not join Claire & Sally of Woodstock Ghost Walks for a paranormal investigation at the atmospheric Combe Mill the night before to discern the phantasmagorical,

Saturday 19th Sept, 7:00 pm - 11:00)

For further details click here: www.woodstockghostwalks.co.uk

Perhaps make a weekend of it, explore pretty Woodstock, Blenheim Palace, the Cotswolds or Oxford. We can't wait to meet you, you gloriously, wonderful steampunks.

Brought to you by Claire & Sally at www.woodstockghostwalks.co.uk

